

PERSONNEL OF PEACE DELEGATES EXPECTED SOON

Preparations for President Wilson's Trip to France Progress

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—There were no developments on the surface today in the preparation for President Wilson's trip to France and for America's representation at the peace conference. Arrangements are going steadily ahead, however, and an announcement of the peace commission's personnel with the program for the journey may be expected at any time.

Members of the senate who attended the White House conference last night told their colleagues today of the president's determination to stay in France indefinitely or until all of the greater issues arising out of the war have been settled. How long this may be no one ventures to guess, so the president will take with him a full executive staff, prepared to transact aboard ship or at the American embassy in Paris virtually all business of the White House.

In addition to Secretary Lansing, who is to head the American delegation to the peace conference, and Colonel House, Elihu Root and Justice Brandeis, generally believed to have been selected by the president for membership, speculation upon a long list of names has centered upon only one for the fifth place—that of Secretary of the department of agriculture, who is being suggested persistently in official quarters.

Navy officials let it be known today that it is planned to take the president and delegation across the Atlantic on a big passenger liner now in use by the government as a transport. A dreadnaught and a flotilla of destroyers probably will be convoy.

CONTINUES TAKING OF ALIEN PROPERTY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—A. Mitchell Palmer, alien property custodian, in a statement tonight said the signing of the armistice does not change his functions or affect in policies in any way.

"The United States and Germany," said Mr. Palmer, "are still at war and trading with the enemy act is still in force. The alien property custodian will continue to perform his duties, and will carry out the evident intent of the congress with relation to enemy property until final peace shall come."

"As long as the trading with the enemy act is in force it remains the duty of all persons having the custody or control of enemy property in this country to make report thereof to the alien property custodian. Despite the fact that the time for making these reports has long since expired, reports are still coming in to this office and there is much property in the country not yet reported. Attention is called to this fact because persons having the custody of enemy property are making themselves liable to prosecution for failure to report it, and this liability will continue even after the treaty of peace shall have been made."

AMERICAN LAWYER FREED IN GERMANY

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 20.—A dispatch received from Berlin dated Saturday says Edward Holton James, an American lawyer and once editor of the Paris Liberator, has been released from the military prison at Moabit after more than three years imprisonment on a charge of carrying on anti-marchal propaganda in connection with Dr. Karl Liebknecht. The dispatch adds that Mr. James appears to be in good health, and the cause of his confinement and that he is returning to the United States.

Edward Holton James was born at Prairie du Chien, Wisconsin, and graduated from Harvard in 1896.

Prior to his confinement in the German prison camp Mr. James had been arrested for Socialistic propaganda in Germany but was released thru the efforts of James W. Gerard, the American ambassador on condition that he leave the country. He left the country but returned again in July 1915 and was arrested. This time he declined to appeal to the Ambassador for aid asserting that this would be inconsistent with his views of government.

Government Will Float More War Loans Next Year

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Secretary McAdoo and members of the capital issues committee today agreed that the committee should continue indefinitely its functions of supervising proposed issues of stocks and bonds for capital purposes as a measure of rationing capital in preparation for future war loans. At the same time it became known that the treasury plans tentatively to float about eight billion dollars more securities during 1919, but hopes to get at least two billions of that sum from war savings.

Members of the capital issues commission, although expressing themselves as individually anxious to relinquish their duties, agreed to take up questions of relaxing their past strict regulations to permit the floating of bonds for public improvements by states, counties and municipalities, and to facilitate the construction of buildings in regions where materials and labor are available without detracting from more essential government projects. In other words, the committee now intends to work out a systematic program for permitting the financing of enterprises which will take up the slack in industrial and labor forces caused by cessation of war activities.

This policy, when formulated, will be set forth in a statement by the committee. This may be issued within a few days.

Another difficult problem of late war financing confronting the treasury is the maintenance of the extensive war savings organization built up during the last year with thousands of men and women giving their time to the movement without compensation. Many of these workers wish to be relieved of their duties but the treasury is urging them to stay, both to aid in gathering two billion dollars in the campaign of 1919 and to preach the doctrine of continued thrift.

BRITISH TAKE OVER TWENTY GERMAN "SUBS"

Over Eighty More To Be Handed Over This Week

LONDON, Nov. 20.—(British Wireless Service.)—Following account of the surrender of the first batch of twenty German submarines which was accomplished this morning at sea is given by an eye-witness of the incident. More than eighty other German submarines are to be handed over to the allied naval command before the end of the week.

After steaming some twenty miles across the North Sea the Harwich forces which consisted of eight light cruisers and twenty destroyers, were sighted. The flagship of Admiral Tyrwhitt, the commander was the Curacao. High above the squadron hung a big observation balloon.

The squadron, headed by the flagship, then steamed toward the Dutch coast followed by the Coventry, Dragon, Danal and Centaur. Other ships followed in line with their navigation lights showing. The picture was a noble one as the great vessels with the moon still shining, plowed their way to take part on the surrender of the German U-boats.

Soon after the British squadron started the "paravanes" were dropped overboard. These devices are shaped like tops and divert any mines that may be encountered, for the vessels were now entering a mine field.

Almost everyone on board donned a life belt and just as the red sun appeared above the horizon the first German submarine appeared in sight. Soon after seven o'clock twenty submarines were seen in line accompanied by two German destroyers, the Tibiana and the Sierra Ventana, which were to take the submarine crews back to Germany after the transfer.

Subs Flew No Flags

All the submarines were on the surface with their hatches open and their crews standing on deck. The vessels were flying no flags whatever and their guns were trained fore and aft in accordance with the terms of surrender. A bugle sounded on the Curacao and all the gun crews took up their stations ready for any possible emergency. The leading destroyer in response to a signal from the admiral turned and lead the way towards England and submarines were ordered to follow. They immediately did so. The surrender had been accomplished.

Each crew was kept in a careful lookout, steamed toward Harwich. On one of the largest of the submarines which carried 23 officers and men were counted on her deck. The craft was estimated to be 235 feet in length. Its number had been painted on the side.

Near the Ship Wash lightship three large British seaplanes followed by an airship were observed. The Harwich forces and the seaplanes and airship made a most impressive sight. One of the submarines was seen to send up a couple of carrier pigeons and at once signals were flashed from the admiral that it had no right to do this.

When the ships had cleared the mine fields and entered the war channel, the "paravanes" were hauled aboard. On reaching a point about 20 miles off Harwich the ships dropped anchor and Captain Addison came out on the warship Maidstone.

Crews Sent Back Home.

British crews were then put on board the submarines to take them into harbor. With the exception of the engine staffs, all the German sailors remained on deck. The submarines were then taken thru the gates of the harbor and the German crews were transferred to the transports which will take them back to Germany.

As the boats went thru the gates the white ensign was run up on each of them with the German flag underneath.

Each submarine commander at the transfer was required to sign a declaration of the effect that his vessel was in running order, that its periscope was intact, that its torpedoes were unloaded and that its torpedo hatches were safe. Orders had been issued forbidding any demonstration and these instructions were obeyed to the letter. There was complete silence as the submarines surrendered and as the crews were transferred. So ended an historic event and the first portion of the German submarine fleet is now in the hands of the British navy.

German Papers Carry Pages of Matrimonial Ads

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Matrimonial ardor has been supplanted by martial zeal in Germany. This is evidenced by the advertising columns of German newspapers recorded here. Matrimonial "ads" cover who are married and walks of life.

A peculiar feature of these advertisements is that many make appeals for husbands or wives for relatives, parents, brothers, sisters and even friends of these. Who seek mates invite correspondence from those matrimonially inclined. War invalids, wealthy physicians, manufacturers and rich widows are among those who resort to publicity. One advertiser says he is a widower and has property amounting to several million marks. He admits he is 58 years but says he "looks younger."

A physician who has an annual income of 100,000 marks seeks to arrange a meeting with "a beautiful, stately woman, object matrimony."

Scarcity of tobacco in Germany is shown by the large number of advertisements offering to purchase cigars and cigarettes in any quantity offered.

That the Germans are preparing to embark on large commercial campaigns in the east is inferred from advertisements asking for salesmen to find purchasers for German products in Poland and Rumania. Other announcements request manufacturers to submit samples of articles which are "suitable for eastern countries."

Congress Will Adjourn Today Until December

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Senate and house leaders today completed arrangements for the ending tomorrow of the present session of congress, so that members may have a brief vacation before the third and last session opens December 1.

A few obstacles to the program developed today, but leaders believe they will serve only to postpone adjournment for a few hours. Senators Watson of Indiana, and Sherman of Illinois, Republicans, were expected to address in criticism of President Wilson's action in taking control of cable wires after the signing of the armistice, while Senator Reed of Missouri, Democrat, has prepared a speech on the plans for a league of nations.

Among the formal matters for disposition before adjournment tomorrow are transmission to the President, after signature by Vice-President Marshall and Speaker Clark of the National War Time Prohibition Bill and confirmation by the senate of the nomination of Former Solicitor General Davis to be ambassador to Great Britain. During the recess the finance committee hopes to complete revision of the war revenue bill to have it ready for the senate when the new session begins.

LONDON, Nov. 20.—General Mangin was injured by being thrown under his horse while reviewing a brigade of French troops on Monday the day before the French army entered Metz. The general's horse was frightened by a band of trumpets. The animal reared and fell on its rider. General Mangin was unconscious when picked up having been injured about the head and legs.

The Intendant says the officer, after being taken to a hospital, remained in a state of coma for twelve hours, but news from the institution this morning is to the effect that no more uneasiness need be felt. It is said the general is making excellent progress and that no after effects are feared.

GOVERNMENT TAXES WILL NOT DROP

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 20.—Warning against expectation that government taxes will drop materially after the war was sounded by internal revenue commissioner Daniel C. Roper in an address here today before the Business Men's Club of Cincinnati.

"We must expect present rates of taxation to be substantially maintained," said Mr. Roper, "and reductions to be made only gradually from year to year."

For this reason he explained the revenue bureau is making special efforts to guard against tax dodging by a small percentage of taxpayers, thru organization of a great corps of expert auditors at Washington and thruout the country to examine carefully the 4,000,000 income tax returns now awaiting audit. In some cases this involves the personal examination of taxpayers' account books and the ferreting out of information which persons seeking to evade taxes had tried to conceal.

Mr. Roper urged that taxpayers familiarize themselves with tax laws and regulations and try to keep adequate records as aids to both the government and themselves in making returns and paying taxes.

HISTORIC CITY OF METZ NOW IN FRENCH HANDS

Great Event Accomplished Tuesday Afternoon

METZ, Tuesday, Nov. 19.—(By The Associated Press.)—The historic event accomplished at two o'clock this afternoon when Marshal Petain, commander in chief of the French armies, made his entry into Metz, the great stronghold of Lorraine and the pivot of Germany's effort to crush France, may be said more than any other happening to consecrate the victory of the allies in this war. The occasion in which the French commander figured for the first time as a marshal of France, also gave rise to one of the most picturesque demonstrations ever carried out by the people of Lorraine.

From early in the morning all the roads leading to Metz were crowded with Lorrainers on their way to the city to raise their voices for Marshal Petain and for France. People unaccustomed to any language other than French for years began many days ago brushing up their knowledge of French in preparation for this occasion, and although the majority of the population undoubtedly has a perfect acquaintance with no other tongue than the German, little of that language was heard in the streets today.

Other things German had disappeared over-night, including the statues of the German rulers who had been hauled down by the citizens. William I. had toppled from his throne of the equestrian monument while Frederick III, who for many long years had pointed a menacing finger at France from the pedestal upon which it stood, had come down with a rope around his neck. Former Emperor William II, still left to stare grotesquely at a statue on the facade of the cathedral. The hands had been chained during the night and into them had been put a band with this inscription: "Sic transit gloria mundi."

The people of Metz, the majority being Roman Catholics, know Latin if they are not strong on French. They crowded around the cathedral all morning to witness the transformation of the statues. Meanwhile the statues of the French heroes Nel and Fabert (Abraham de Fabert, marshal of France in 1655) were decked with flowers and bunting. French military engravings appeared as if by magic in the windows of art stores and an oil painting of Napoleon was hung out from a conspicuous window, where it would be in full view of the incoming heroes.

Preparations for the reception of Marshal Petain were made Sunday evening at the first public meeting in 48 years at which the people of Lorraine could meet freely and converse in French without running the risk of being sent to prison.

United War Work Campaign Short of Goal

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Officials of the United War Work campaign announced tonight that the latest national total for the drive for $170,500,000 which closes at midnight tonight was $158,565,058 or $11,934,942 less than the sum sought. They added that this report was incomplete and that final figures would not be available for at least two days.

Leaders of the patriotic drive for the seven welfare organizations serving America's fighting forces remained hopeful of attaining their goal, asserting that state and local committees in all parts of the country were too busy tabulating last minute contributions to report their totals to national headquarters.

George W. Perkins, chairman of the finance department of the campaign issued a statement in which he asserted that "it is impossible to give anything like accurate figures as the campaign draws to a close."

As quickly as the figures are all in a statement showing the exact amount secured in each state in the union will be made public, he said.

Officials announced that 38 states had gone "over the top," and that New England and the south had scored a perfect record. Rear-Admiral T. J. Cowie, in charge of the campaign in the navy, telegraphed national headquarters that subscriptions from the bluejackets and marines, all voluntary, now totaled more than $250,000. Admiral Sims has cabled contributions from several vessels in European waters, while the marine detachment station at Peking has subscribed $65.

Howard Places Blame For Recent Fake Peace News

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Roy W. Howard, president of the United Press, who sent a cable dispatch from France Nov. 7 announcing that the Germans had signed the armistice, causing a premature peace celebration all over the country today issued a statement of explanation supplementing the one he made Nov. 8.

Mr. Howard had just returned to New York from Washington where he said he had conferred with Secretary of the Navy Daniels. His statement reiterated his former one placing responsibility on Vice-Admiral Wilson, commander of the American fleet in French waters. He said that Admiral Wilson personally gave him a written announcement and added:

"Were the same identical proposition presented tomorrow we would act exactly as on Nov. 7. No newspaperman could or would do otherwise."

"Upon my return to the United States," the statement continued, "I learned that no news had been published here of the fact that celebration of the signing of the armistice took place on Nov. 7 and that any explanation based on naval bases on the French coast."

"I was also surprised to learn that nothing had reached here by cable concerning the fact that all Paris had the report of the armistice being signed. At the American Luncheon Club meeting in Paris, on the night of the armistice, I was seated on one side of him and American Consul General Thackeray on the other, announced on what he said was the authority of the armistice had been signed."

"Nothing much has yet been said as to the source of Admiral Wilson's information. No explanation has yet been offered of how the report reached the American embassy in Paris as official French papers have been offered yet, as to what became of the first German armistice delegation headed by von Hintze which was reported to have reached the French lines on Nov. 6 and which then disappeared from the news, being picked up by the Erzberger plenipotentiaries."

"Some of these matters will be cleared up after peace is signed."

AMERICANS ENTER INTO LUXEMBURG

AMERICAN ARMY OF OCCUPATION, Nov. 20.—(By The Associated Press.)—Swinging northward from Metz the American first division crossed into Luxembourg just before noon today entering Esch, a mining town of 20,000 inhabitants. The civilians expected the Americans Thursday but when the vanguard appeared the news spread quickly. The whistles from the mines were blown, bells were rung, children were excused from schools, stores were closed and the afternoon was proclaimed a holiday.

The store windows and public buildings along the principal streets there were pictures of President Wilson, drawn by an artist of Esch who had worked night and day to complete by hand as many drawings as possible. Pictures of President Poincare, Marshal Foch and King Albert also were prominently displayed.

MARKET PRICE FOR IRON CROSSES TUMBLES.

Time makes wonderful changes in values—and a very short time at that. A Paris dispatch says that iron crosses are now being sold in Germany for 5 pfennings, a coin with the value of about one cent in American money. Only a very short time ago the late Emperor William was bestowing these crosses with lavish hand, but they were nevertheless highly valued by the recipients and their friends. The smashing drive by the allied armies soon annulled that value.

THE GRAND REVIEW OF 1919.

The grand review at Washington of soldiers who took part in the War of the Rebellion still stands out boldly as a great event in the history of the United States. It was a parade which marked the demobilization of the boys in blue and it was indeed a great event. With millions of troops to be returned from France during a somewhat long period it is not likely that the "grand review" can be given a present day duplication. More is the pity, for Washington would hardly hold the throngs that would assemble for such an event, and the already great sum total of American patriotism would be renewed and enlarged in a very material way by such a pageant.

TOURISTS TO HELP REBUILD EUROPE.

In writing about the readjustment period in Europe and the vast sums which will be required for rebuilding work, the important item of the "to do" list by sightseers has seemingly been overlooked. During the war period normal European travel has been entirely checked, as passports were not granted to travelers, and furthermore, all shipping was being used for the transportation of soldiers. As soon as the travel is again open it can well be imagined that a very large number of Americans who have delayed trips abroad will immediately become passengers for overseas, and this list will be augmented by still other thousands anxious to make the trip to Europe for the first time. So there will be a great stream of tourists going to France and Belgium and some of the other European territory, and the residents of the devastated countries can legitimately collect enormous sums in fees from the tourists.

In times past one important source of income for Europeans has been from American tourists and in coming days the golden stream from these travelers will be vastly increased.

THE PRESIDENTIAL TOUR.
There is great deal of unfavorable newspaper comment upon the proposed trip abroad of President Wilson. If the early announcement of the president's intention was made in order to sense the public view, the plans for the trip will be changed. Some precedents have been cited for presidential action in leaving the country, but it is nevertheless true that no former president ever planned for such a long journey or such continued absence from the seat of government. The St. Louis Globe-Democrat editorially objects to the visit on the ground that it will be insignificant for the president to meet with a group of delegates from other countries, in that either kings or presidents are the only dignitaries that are upon the same level with him.

But most of the adverse newspaper comment seems to be based on the risk attending the president's proposed pilgrimage. The apprehension of what might happen if the president were unable to return and the mantle of the presidency fall upon the shoulders of Vice President Marshall, an official no one championships as being a man of presidential stature.

THE OPTIMISTIC VIEW.

In discussing after-the-war conditions and in looking toward the future it is interesting to have the opinions of such men as David R. Forgan, well known Chicago banker. Mr. Forgan as quoted in a recent editorial in the Springfield Journal, expresses the belief that the high prices and high taxes will continue another year and that business will be on a satisfactory level. As Mr. Forgan believes, the government will use caution and discretion in the matter of canceling war contracts, so he believes that conditions will gradually be adjusted with the retaining of satisfactory wages and living conditions. It is an optimistic view and there is no questioning the fact that optimistic opinions help out in the present situation, for general conditions are very largely colored by public feeling. The psychology of the situation seems to be that if everybody talks good times and satisfactory business conditions, and sincerely looks for these things, that their wishes will be realized. Based on this theory, certainly this is a time for "Mr. Smiley Glad" rather than for "Mr. Lugubrious Blue" of cartoon fame.

"NOTHING TOO GOOD FOR SOLDIERS."

Soldiers who return to their homes from cantonments after they have been discharged from the army service are to be granted a 2c fare according to the plan of Director McAdoo. The same order will apply to soldiers returning from overseas, after they have been finally discharged either at Washington or New York. The country will very much approve these orders, and, in fact, will wonder if a one cent a mile rate should not be allowed the soldiers for their return home journey, giving them the privilege of the same rate as they had when granted furloughs while in the army service. In the public mind nothing is too good for the soldiers now and nothing should be too good for them in the war days. Anyhow why shouldn't they be returned home at government expense.

WAR OVER WHEN EFFECT IS GONE.

Mrs. Joseph T. Bowen, chairman of the Woman's Division of the State Council of Defense, in a recent appeal to the organization to continue that work, made this significant statement: "The war will not be over until the country has recovered from its effect."

This sentence really summarizes the situation in a very forcible way. It has been pointed out that the war will not be over officially or legally until the peace treaties have been duly signed and that will be a date at least several months away. There are a great many after-the-war problems to be solved and there are vastly differing opinions as to just the best methods of solution. All these are reasons why the state council of defense and kindred organizations should be kept intact.

The food administration is to be continued because there is a known world shortage of food products. The fuel administration is to remain intact because of the industrial needs for the coming winter, and the possibility of a domestic shortage. The U. S. army has not yet been demobilized, and when that has happened will be time enough for the demobilization of civilian organizations.

THE GREATEST THREE MONTHS IN HISTORY.

That the three months between July 15 and Oct. 15, 1918, were the most stupendous in the history of the human race is the statement made in an article on "The Progress of the World" in the current issue of the Review of Reviews. To substantiate that statement the writer goes on to review the conditions which existed last July, with the British army acknowledging that her soldiers were fighting "with their backs against the wall," and then leads up to the events of October, when the civilized world with well defined surprise saw 3,000,000 Germans in their retreat from Belgium and northern France.

This change in pictures had been brought about by the arrival in France of shipload after shipload of American youths, untried in warfare but with the spirit and the strength which entered into the situation at a most critical time. In the past few months it is related that more than a million people left the city of Paris in anticipation of its capture by the Germans. Then came the change in the tide of events already noted, the surrender of Bulgaria, Turkey and Austria all leading up to the still more recent dramatic events.

As one reviews the history of the three months and compare it with other periods in world events it is easy to see that the reviewer's statement is well founded.

Rippling Rhymes By Walt Mason

Strident Times.
These be the times that try try men's souls; we're always digging up our rolls, and stripping off the bills; as fast as we can earn the coin it has to go for steak and loaf, for pantaloons and pills. The price has risen, is the cry, whenever a fellow goes to buy a hymnbook or a hen; the war has made of trade a botch, and so the prices rise a notch, and they will rise again. These be the times that try men's souls; the doughnuts now are mostly holes, the pies are thin and pale; most things are made of substitutes, and there are wormholes in the fruits for which we blow our kale. A pound of butter costs us now as much as would have bought a cow, in halcyon times of peace; and when we buy it some one comes with yarning voice and muffled drums, and says, "Conserve the grease." These be the times that try men's souls; we cannot touch, with ten-foot poles, the price of things we need; the stand off at the store is banned and all the wealth we have on hand is merely chicken feed. And yet, as I ponder my war, I do not see a groch all day or hear a plaintive whine; the boys seem to stand the gaff and all the hard luck makes them laugh, instead of bringing brine. You cannot whip a bunch like us; in time of peace we rant and cuss, and paw around like sin; but when we need to wear a yoke we view the blamed thing as a joke, and wear it with a grin.

THANKS FROM A SOLDIER

Mrs. John Lambert of West College avenue is in receipt of a letter from a soldier in France thanking her for a pair of knitted socks donated thru the Red Cross. The letter follows:

Oct. 14, 1918.
My dear Mrs. Lambert:
Our company has just received a lot of heavy knitted socks thru the American Red Cross and I was lucky enough to get a pair with your aid in them.

We are all very grateful as the hand knitted ones far outclass the others.

With best regards to you and your dear associates who have made us just that much better fitted for the coming winter, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Case Docketed

The case of Georgia R. Montgomery vs. Chicago & Alton railroad, returned from appellate court, has been redocketed in the office of Circuit Clerk Boston. The case will probably come to trial at this term of court. It will be remembered that this is a personal injury case in which the complainant was awarded damages of $3,000 in the circuit court. The case was taken to the higher court on appeal by the railroad company.

HOW TO SPELL MULLIGAN

IN SIX LANGUAGES

From the Knights of Columbus War News Service, 461 Fourth Avenue, New York City.
Mulligan is a good old, fighting Irish name—atho one might be inclined to doubt it, glancing thru the stack of mail from overseas addressed to William J. Mulligan, Chairman of the Knights of Columbus Committee on War Activities, 461 Fourth Avenue, New York.

A missive from a French poilu, who has tasted his first R. K. of C. batch of smokes and registers his thanks and an invitation for more, has "Mulleghan" (acute accent over the e). A hardy British Tommy spells the surname of innumerable Irish kings, "Mulligan" a sikh who has eaten a bar of C. chocolate and yearned for more, addresses the K. of C. chairman as "the sahib Mulligan"; a member of the Polish legion, expressing delight at a concert in a K. of C. hall where his national music predominated, writes the name that for a thousand years has braved the battle and the breeze, Mulligan; and one of our own fellows colored by a red from an excursion in No. Man's Land, states that he is alternately smoking a K. of C. cigar and writing his letter with the other hand; hailing from Missouri, he spells the Chairman's name—Mulleghan. And a Czechoslovak warrior, breathing defiance of English, or Irish orthography, spells the name—Mydlizn. But William J. Mulligan of the K. of C. has this consolation—a chairman called by any other name is just as efficient.

H. C. Myers' Sale

H. C. Myers held a closing out sale at his farm six miles northwest of the city Wednesday. The inclement weather, bad roads and influenza cut down the attendance and some of the offerings sold at much below their real value. This was especially true of horses which sold extremely cheap.

The sale totaled $2,000. Charles M. Strawn was the auctioneer and A. E. Williamson served as clerk. The Ladies' Aid of Mt. Zion church served lunch. Mr. Myers has sold his farm and purchased a farm in the Rio Grande valley to take up his residence soon. Some of the buyers and prices are given hereunder:

Horses
William Roegge, team, $130.
Samuel Challiner, horse $72.50.

Horses sold at a top price of $146. Yearling mules sold at $100 per head. Cows at from $60 to $100 per head. Yearling heifers averaged $50. Sows and pigs sold at $60 to $85. Shoats at from $17 to $25. Timothy hay at $27.50 per ton and clover hay at $21 per ton. Oats straw at 60 cents per bale. Corn in crib at $1.46 per bushel. Household goods and farm implements sold well.

Just a few bushels of hand picked Grimes Golden apples, $1.50 per bushel, delivered. Call Cannon Produce Co.

SMALL BOYS RUN OVER

Byron Summers aged 6 years and Charles Summers aged 11 years, were run over by an express wagon Tuesday afternoon in North Church street. The boys were riding on Smith's hardware delivery wagon and when they alighted were run down by the express wagon which was immediately behind the Smith vehicle.

John Turner of the Salvation Army was near the scene of the accident and took the boys to Dr. Bowe's office. Dr. Bowe ordered Charles Summers removed to Our Savior's Hospital where it was found that his injuries were not of a serious nature and he was removed to his home Wednesday morning.

BACK FROM CONVENTION

Dr. A. L. Adams has returned from Chicago where he has been attending the sessions of the state medical society. The sessions were unusually interesting in Dr. Adams' opinion, because many of the subjects discussed introduced new phases brought about by the war.

WINCHESTER

Judge F. C. Funk was able to be down town Wednesday after a week's illness of influenza. The funeral of Alfred Peak will be conducted Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the Winchester cemetery. On account of illness in the home there will be no service there.

George Smith, living east of Winchester, held a public sale Wednesday. Corn sold at high at $1.45 a bushel.

William Zellmer left Wednesday for Peoria. Mrs. Zellmer will leave today to visit relatives in Beardstown and will join her husband in Peoria Saturday.

NOTICE

November 18, 1918.

ORDER No. 121.

To All Industries in the State of Illinois.

We are now able to announce that all limitations in the use of fuel in the production of building materials, including brick, cement, lime, hollow tile and lumber have been removed. Such industries in this State, as will be in need of increased tonnage, should make their arrangements at once, so that their requirements may be cared for before the advent of severe weather.

In addition, we are also able to advise that we are removing the restrictions as to the use of coal by florists and that they may hereafter take in such tonnage as they require.

There are no changes, however, in the restriction as to the use of coal by breweries or for use in connection with the malting of grain.

This action is made possible because of the anticipated reduced requirements of war industries, as well as because of the not unsatisfactory present condition in the supply of Illinois bituminous coal. Industries generally have co-operated with the Administration in the active storing of coal thruout the summer months. But with this removal of certain restriction, we must expect your continued full co-operation to the extent that you will continue to abide by the instructions issued in order No. 110 of October 24th, which required that coal in storage be held for use following the advent of severe weather, after January 1st, and certainly in no event should such coal be consumed before December 1st. Your present requirements should be cared for by current deliveries.

The only exception which is justified is where an industry already has in stock, sufficient coal to take care of its requirements until March or April—and in these cases it is reasonable to expect that the consumption of coal so stored may have commenced. In these instances, our only caution is that you should not postpone, until too late a day, the matter of taking in such additional supplies of coal as will carry you thruout the winter period.

The restrictions concerning the industrial use of anthracite and coke are not in any respect changed, nor is there at this time any change in the situation, respecting the use of bituminous coal from other fields than those of Illinois and Indiana.

Yours very truly,

T. D. PAYNE,

Director Industrial Distribution.

Electrically Governed 18 Horse Power with the New

MOLINE
UNIVERSAL TRACTOR
It Solves The Farm Help Problem

The perfected 4-cylinder overhead-valve engine of the new Moline-Universal Tractor, Model D, develops 18-horsepower on the belt, pulling a 24-inch grain separator or 16-inch ensilage cutter, with a belt-speed of between 2400 and 3000 feet a minute. Variations in load do not affect the engine speed of the Moline-Universal in the slightest, due to an electrical governor that instantly regulates the throttle to compensate for the slightest change in pull. Electricity, the most sensitive, quickest acting force known to man, holds the engine of the Moline-Universal under control, and makes it run steadily under all conditions.

The pulley on the Moline-Universal Tractor is located directly in front of the engine, making it easy to change from one operation to another. Running a silo filler, corn shredder, feed grinder, wood saw, clover huller, hay press, water pump or electric lighting plant are only a few of the many uses to which the Moline-Universal can be put. Unusual economy is shown by the Moline-Universal Tractor, because of the perfected overhead-valve construction of the engine, with a small bore and long stroke, and valves that measure half the diameter of the combustion chamber. A specially designed intake manifold heats and dries the gas to a perfect condition for burning. These features in combination extract every ounce of energy from the gasoline, producing power at remarkably low cost. The construction of the Moline-Universal engine is such that it will stand up without faltering under the hardest test to which it can be subjected. Extra large bearings, lubrication under 35 pounds pressure, alloy steels and careful machining give it the stamina to stand up for long runs under full load. The real superiority of the Moline-Universal Tractor, however, lies in field work. Here it enables one man to perform every field operation, including planting, harvesting and cultivating. Its universal adaptability practically does away with horses and also solves the farm help problem. It is easily the most useful and greatest labor saving device ever invented for the farm. Investigate what this machine can do for you.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

"WHEN THE CIVIL WAR ENDED"

By Ensley Moore

(Memoir Illinois State Historical Society)

The celebration last week, of the European Armistice, taken as ending that strife on all hands, mainly by the Germans, brought back to the older citizens the glad time when Grant's capture of the Confederates at Appomattox, Va., spelled the end of the Civil War in the United States. As stated last week, under the heading, "When Johnson came marching home," the surrender to General Grant occurred on April 9th, 1865.

But, as stated in that article, news did not travel so fast as it does now. The victory at "the famous Apple Tree" was on Sunday, but Jacksonville probably did not get the news before Monday or Tuesday thereafter.

The Celebration. The celebration here was absolutely informal. This was then a town, so there was no mayor to make a proclamation. Of course there was no telephone to spread the news in a few minutes.

There were few whistles and no Court House bell, and no Town Clock bell, so that means of announcement was not to be employed. Beyond all this, the people had been disappointed several times, notably in the reported capture of Vicksburg, some time before it really occurred, and there was another reason for our not getting war news quickly. That was we had no daily papers. Our first daily came in from Springfield at about 5 a. m., on the Wabash. The papers were the State Journal and the State Register, a few numbers of which were taken here, and distributed by the Mason boys, Ebenezer beginning his bookstore business in that way.

So it came about that it was pretty late in the day that our people realized that there was something doing. The writer went down town about ten o'clock in the forenoon, and found the festivities had started. This consisted in the Fire engine-Union or Waterwitch-being drawn out into the northeast quarter of what was then called the Court Yard—now the Central Park.

Upon it was a keg of beer, and two small boys—one certainly—perched on the "mashieen," much the worse for having imbibed too much. Why the engine or beer was there the writer never knew. As recalled, there were two or three fellows, with some volunteer assistants, dispensing the fluid. Mr. Matthew H. Miller says there was also a barrel of whiskey in evidence, and that among others to drink, one very pronounced temperance man was laid on his back and whiskey poured down his throat. Of course this was the work of that then crowned king, Bacchus, or his followers. It is greatly to be rejoiced at, that, as we look at this villainous ruler, there was no more in authority here than was Kaiser Bill.

Jacksonville only had about six or seven thousand people in those days, and the country people had no autos in which to rush to town—if they had the news. So, in the forenoon, the people mostly "stood around" and talked. But Mr. Minter says the band, to which he belonged, was blowing itself to pieces about all day. At that time he was a growing boy, and notable for the length of his legs—which are not very short now.

In the afternoon some issued a call for a parade at night, and at that time a motley crowd of men and boys—probably headed by the band, gathered at the Square, and set out on a short march around.

It went up State street to "the Academy," then down College Avenue and to "the Methodist College," then, probably back to the square, and around it. Some of the marchers had shot guns, which they fired at intervals, others had horns and perhaps tin pans, and others sang. So there was considerable noise, and the participants felt we had had a big time. But it was not very large compared with the event of a week ago Monday.

Some Old Papers. During that War, the Southern newspapers were put to all sorts of shifts to get out their publications. Most of them were only little weeklies, to be sure. One resort was to the use of the uncolored side of wall papers. There are probably a good many of these still in the North, sent home as curiosities, by "the boys in Blue."

Two Southern papers are before the writer. These, however, were not an wall paper. One is the Daily Clarion, of Meridian, Miss. It was a creditable issue of one sheet, printed on both sides, and was of seven columns in width. Its leading editorial point, under a side head, reads as follows:

"Send in the papers.—We are entirely dependent on our friends for the general news of the day. No mails have been established yet, tho we heard weeks ago that an agent of the postoffice department had started South to establish mail routes. Our friends will give us a great favor by sending us any papers they may be in possession of." This paper was dated Friday, June 16, 1865.

The following is part of an editorial, reprinted from the Mobile Tribune. It sounds considerably like some of the utterances of today. It says: "The Mobile Tribune, in an article on the prospect of a war with Mexico holds that among ourselves something more must be done than has been accomplished."

The results of this great strife have not yet been brought to a final conclusion. The debris of this terrible business has been gathered up and moulded into such a form as will fashion the national character into a complete representation of American sentiment, and this will take the skill of our wisest men. The European nations have played "fast and loose" both with the federal government and with the confederacy. They have no right to any man's esteem on this continent and if they be driven from it in haste and mortification, we shall only applaud the power which forces them to assent to the fact that Americans must rule America.

A Montgomery Paper. The other paper before the writer is the Montgomery, (Ala.) Daily Mail, of May 1, 1865.

The paper was of one sheet, printed on both sides, with five columns on a side. It is deeply draped, out of respect to President Lincoln, and nearly half its space is given up to the details of his cowardly assassination, and following events. The reliable news had, apparently, only reached Montgomery the day before. The leading editorial is upon the subject, couched in terms of respect, if no more. The news regarding Mr. Lincoln was headed: "Further particulars of the Washington tragedy." This has the following introduction, showing how slowly they got the report in full: "The Chattanooga Gazette of the 15th (April) comes to us in mourning, announcing the killing of President Lincoln in the Theatre in Washington City on the night of the 15th inst."

GODD FOR LYNNVILLE VICTORY GIRLS

The work done by the Lynnville Victory Girls is well worthy of commendation. The original quota desired of them was $30 and raised by the 50 per cent addition to $45. The young ladies went resolutely to work husking corn, scrubbing and in fact doing any kind of honorable work to secure the funds and the result has been a reported collection of $61.30 of which already $43.95 has been turned in.

REGARDING THE FLU Compared with some places in the state the prevailing trouble is very mild in this city and compared with others it is very bad. All sorts of suggestions are being made and it must be admitted that what isn't known and understood regarding the disease would fill a very large volume. The medical fraternity are not wholly certain regarding a great many things pertaining to it; how it is communicated and the means necessary to avoid taking it.

Some drastic measures taken in other places are more or less effective. In Beardstown they have special police whose duty it is to keep the people moving; prevent knots of persons congregating on the streets or walks; keep them moving in stores and get them out as soon as trading is done.

In Indianapolis everybody, away from his own residence, is required to wear a mask. Persons entering the city must be so provided. Residences in which there is a case of the disease are placarded the same as those having smallpox and members of the family are guarded carefully that they may not spread the trouble. The manner in which the disease is communicated seems not to be fully settled. It is in the air some say and as proof cite cases which certainly were not exposed. Others claim it is communicated by the breath, but no one seems positive. One thing is certain; it is prevalent in Jacksonville to an unpleasant extent and all wish it were away. In Indianapolis there are no restrictions regarding any kind of gathering, schools, churches, theaters and the like, the masks being deemed sufficient to keep away the trouble. A number of merchants were interviewed and said if it was deemed necessary they would patriotically close their places of business for a few days but none deemed it wise to do so.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Never before in history has there been as good a time as at the present to buy land as an investment. With the war over, business will get on a solid basis. The United States will have to replenish the devastated countries, which is going to take a long time; we have the ships to do our exporting, we have the materials, we have the provisions and the men to put it there. Prices on farm products are bound to be high and land will be higher. That land is a safe investment is proven by large capitalists making inquiries, the last few days, with the prospect of buying large tracts of land. I have farms of all sizes and kinds. Come and see what I have to offer. Also, city property of all kinds, and money to loan.

Your Opportunity

Never in the history of the world has there been as great an opportunity for the people of the rural districts as the present. The attention of the world has been turned to the products of the soil as never before; for grim necessity has caused those of wealth to save and divide with the millions of hungry and starving humanity. Not for years will the bins and granaries be filled again to their normal capacity.

We of central Illinois should take advantage of the golden opportunity before us; for we have the soil and water and climate, which, combined with intelligent cultivation of the soil and the rearing of live stock, will make us independent and when the boys come back from "over there" and tell us of the land selling from several hundred dollars to several thousand dollars per acre and paying dividends at that price because of intensified farming, then we will farm better and get better returns than with the advance in price of land that is sure to come, after the restoration of peace.

Now is the time to get you a farm before the big advance, for Capital is turning to land for an investment as never before. Come and see me and I will help you get what you want.

THE STORY OF A LETTER

The Journal is in receipt of the following from a resident of Franklin, wherein the story of a returned letter indicates the earnest effort of the United States government has made to have mail forwarded to soldiers reach the intended destination.

"With what minute carefulness and exact efficiency Uncle Sam has provided that his soldiers who were sent abroad will receive the mail sent to them, was in no measure better proven than in a returned letter which reached the sender here this week. It was after a trip to the battle-front where the party in whom it was directed could not be located. The letter in question was mailed on the first of June this year at the local post-office, by a resident of this place to an officer who was then stationed at Camp Upton, L. I. but who, however, was sent to France before it had reached there, and followed him on, and bears evidence of having been received at two points in France, but was still undelivered. Some time ago the young officer was returned to the States, and, as there was still one vacant spot on the envelope, it was promptly addressed back to the U. S. A., and the 'faithful little messenger' once more crossed the sea, and bobbed up smiling in America as if it had proudly done its duty. But still it failed in its mission and was sent to the war department at Washington, where it was enclosed in a heavy official envelope and sent to the writer here where it was received after having journeyed lasting nearly six months."

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks to those who so kindly assisted during the illness and after the death of Mrs. Harry G. Craig. Also for the floral offerings.

U. W. W. CAMPAIGN MET DIFFICULTIES

State Chairman Sends Letter of Thanks and Appreciation to Dr. Rammelkamp and Co-Workers.

In a letter to Dr. C. H. Rammelkamp, general chairman of Morgan county U. W. W. campaign, F. G. Adamson, Illinois chairman, extends congratulations for the good work. The state chairman also comments upon the fact that had Chicago and Cook county met conditions as readily as the counties down state, that the results would have been far more satisfactory. In the letter Mr. Adamson said:

"Had Chicago and Cook county kept pace with the rest of the state, Illinois today would occupy a proud position in the United War Work procession. As it is, while regretting the lack of enthusiasm in Greater Chicago, we of the State organization have reason to feel that we have made a good showing in spite of many adverse conditions."

"We appreciate the difficulties you have faced—influenza, bad weather and roads, peace relaxation, and so on. One handicap after another was imposed upon you; and in the face of these disheartening conditions you have put the State, outside of Cook County, over its original quota and have encouraged us to believe that we are going to pile up a good over-subscription."

"Everyone at State headquarters appreciates your splendid efforts in this trying campaign, and takes this occasion to thank and congratulate you. And now that we have done so well in surpassing the original quota, let's keep our oars off and our sleeves rolled up and hustle after the over-subscriptions. We need every cent we can get; and we should not relax our efforts for a moment, but should feel that our success in surpassing the original quota is only an incentive to reach the high mark of a fifty per cent over subscription."

"Please thank all your workers for us and ask them to make one more effort. Now is the time to slip 'er into high and burn up the road."

ERROR IN FIGURES.

Another error in the list of subscriptions for the U. W. W. fund occurred recently. Miss Elizabeth Arnold, 615 South East street, was accredited with a subscription of 15¢. The figure should have been $25.

ARRIVES OVERSEAS.

Mrs. Harriet Crabbe has received a card announcing the safe arrival of her son, Clell Crabbe, overseas. The family home is at 606 East College street.

FRANCE WILL ERECT

PARIS MONUMENT FOR U. S. Paris, Nov. 20.—An interesting sidelight on the proposal to erect a monument at the mouth of the Gironde river to commemorate the help given to France in the war by the United States, became known today. It was the words of General Pershing during his visit to Picpus cemetery at La Fayette, we are here—that inspired the plan to raise such a monument. The committee in charge of arrangements met at the chamber of deputies today and decided to issue an appeal to all the municipalities of France for contributions to the national fund.

DISCUSS SHIPPING POOL MOVEMENT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—An international pool of shipping for the movement of vitally necessary supplies to France, Belgium, Central Europe and the near east probably will be discussed, it was said today at conferences between Chairman Hurley of the shipping board who is now enroute to Europe and representatives of the allied governments. Some officials here believe that if this plan is adopted provision should be made for supplying the tonnage necessary for moving essential commodities to South America and Africa. These countries are said to be short of much material and machinery necessary for the development of their industries.

WHITE HALL WATER SYSTEM INSPECTED

Report of Hydraulic Engineer Gives Comfort to Advocates of Improved Facilities, Defeated in First Effort to Secure Favorable Vote on a Bond Issue.

White Hall, Nov. 20.—Advocates of an improved waterworks system for White Hall are receiving comfort from a report of a hydraulic engineer who made a survey of the White Hall water system two weeks ago, and has recommended even more elaborate improvements than were contemplated in a proposition submitted to a vote in the spring city election last year, which was defeated because of the unfair attitude of the local press. The engineer's report points the way to secure a reduction of insurance rates by placing the city in the 3½ class instead of in Class 4 under present conditions showing that had the city voted the improvement bonds there would have accrued a saving in insurance rates alone that would have probably totaled the amount of the interest on $20,000 of bonds with a surplus sufficient to have retired the principal, saying nothing of the saving over the present cost of pumpkins, notwithstanding the gasoline engines have been retired as emergency equipment and electric power substituted. A copy of the report of the Illinois Inspection Bureau has been received by T. J. Grant, superintendent of the city water system, with the following note: "We have had occasion to have our hydraulic engineer inspect the fire fighting facilities of your town, and I am herewith enclosing report. Under this report the city of White Hall would be graded as that of 4th class. If all the recommendations suggested are fulfilled, the grade of 3½ Class should be given your town. These recommendations are given for a period of one year. If no work is done on them within that time we would want to inspect the town to see that conditions before extending the time. If we can be of any further service to you, we would be very glad to have you call upon us." Signed by Frank H. Jones, Publisher, Illinois Inspection Bureau, 1233 First National Bank Building, Chicago, Ill.

The report, after a recital of the area, topography and general make-up and character of the town, takes up the history of the municipal waterworks, of which Mr. T. J. Grant is the superintendent in direct charge. The original installation was in 1899 and 1900. The average domestic consumption is about 100,000 gallons per day and the maximum domestic consumption 130,000 gallons per day. The estimated rate of fire protection 2,160,000 gallons per day. The estimated rate of average domestic consumption and fire flow, 2,260,000 gallons per day. Total pumping capacity 238,000 gallons per day. Elevated storage 80,000 gallons. All service is metered. An artificial lake, from which the supply is obtained, covers from fifteen to twenty acres. There are eight miles of pipe lines, with 94 double hydrants of the Corey type.

Recommendations Made.

In summing up and making recommendations, the report says that the waterworks supply itself is practically inexhaustible. The pump is of good design and well installed. It is of fair capacity, but is not suited for fire service. Two sources of power are provided to drive same, which is a good feature. The recommendations follow:

Improve the system of distribution by installing 6-in. feeder mains in place of 4-in.

Install new pumping capacity of not less than 500 gallons per minute, arranging for two sources of power to drive same.

Install a new 10-in supply main from pumping station to system of distribution, retaining the present 6-in. line for emergency purposes.

Provide suitable fire protection for the pumping station.

Adopt as a standard in future installations 6-in as a minimum size connection from hydrant to street main.

Compile and keep in a safe place a complete map of waterworks system, showing location of valves and hydrants, and giving size of all mains.

Keep 800-feet of good hose in reserve.

Provide means for testing hose to a pressure of at least 150 pounds.

Hold regular drills with apparatus when weather conditions permit.

Require the chief to make regular inspection of buildings in the mercantile and manufacturing districts with respect to fire hazards. Keep a record of these inspections.

Secure some means of sounding general alarms other than the present hand-operated bell.

Enact an electrical ordinance modeled after the National Electric Code, and require new installation to be inspected before current is turned into them.

Change the present building ordinance to conform to the National Building Code.

Ability to secure needed material with the cessation of the war has enabled work to progress toward completion on the installation of the additional pumping facilities at the station of the Hillview Drainage and Levee District. This addition will double the capacity of the four pumping units already provided, giving a pumping capacity of upwards of 40,000 gallons per minute, an enormous amount of water.

Union services at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening were held to bid welcome to the new pastor, Rev. J. B. Kneale, who spoke in a spirit of thanks giving and the reasons therefor from the price paid by the people in gaining freedom from autocratic governments in the history of the world of which the Hohenzollerns were likened to the Cæsars. Rev. Koehne is an experienced public lecturer. A report of White Hall's contributions to war activities during the present war in money alone was made by Rev. Leo Howard, who showed the total to be approximately one million dollars, divided as follows: first and second Liberty Loans, $125,490; third, $265,000 fourth, $318,000; War Savings Stamps and Thrift Stamps, $188,200; first Y. M. C. A. drive, $2,400; second $4,395; Red Cross, $7,000; total $910,485.

Death of Mrs. Bogges.

Mrs. John A. Bogges died at her home on North Main street at six o'clock Tuesday, following a long illness with lung trouble, her demise being hastened by an attack of influenza about two weeks ago. Her maiden name was Minnie Adams, her parents being Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adams, both deceased, and she was born at White Hall forty-five years ago on May 31st, last. The husband and one son survive, the latter being in France with the American forces. Funeral services will be held Thursday, but no definite arrangements have been made at this hour, pending the arrival of Mrs. J. W. Chipchase from Jacksonville this evening.

Mrs. Amy Hutchinson departed Tuesday morning for her winter home at Eustis, Florida.

The families of Bert Campbell and Ernest Bogges are both laid up with influenza. They reside in the country adjacent to White Hall.

Mrs. Zeno Stocks, writing from Harris, Kansas, renews her offer to deed a certain parcel of land to Whiteside Park. She addresses Mayor R. C. Boehm as follows: "It was Mr. Stocks' intention to do as you say in regard to the park proposition. He often talked about it, and asked me to do the same in case he did not live to see the extension carried out, and I shall not certainly take pleasure in doing so. Roy will be there soon to plan with you, he having been detained at home by the arrival of a daughter on November 4th. I will spend the holidays with them in Kansas City, and spend the remainder of the winter with Brother Ben and family in Arkansas City. Best wishes and kindest regards to yourself and all my dear White Hall friends."

FROM COUNTY AGENT'S OFFICE

Few Floating Corn Huskers.—Judging from the experience of this office and from circular letters from other county agents, corn huskers are not coming North as we expected. The influenza scare has tended to make them stay pretty close to their own fireside. The scarcity of huskers will quite likely prolong the corn husking period this fall. A number of farmers are waiting until their neighbors get thru so they can get their help.

Furloughs.—One way to get the boys back on the farm and to overcome the scarcity of labor is, to ask for furloughs for the boys in our training camps. In view of the fact that peace is here the commanding officers will quite likely grant these furloughs freely.

Restriction Removed From Limestone.—For several weeks a purchaser of limestone has had to make affidavit stating that he needed the limestone and also to get a certificate from the County Agent that this limestone would be beneficial to his land. These restrictions have now been removed. Farmers may buy limestone where ever they can get it and it will be shipped as promptly as the railroad facilities will permit.

Grades of Grain.—A ruling of the Food Administration, under the date of Oct. 31, is of interest to both buyers and sellers of grain. It may make some difference in the wheat adjustment prices so recently under discussion. The clause in question states, "In further explanation dealers will determine this re-adjustment on the quality as it came over the scale in the farmers wagon and not on the wheat graded at the terminal market after cleaning and blending."

Wheat Adjustment Prices.—In a recent circular letter, from this office the statement was made that the grain corporation of the United States Food Administration had ruled that buyers must handle the wheat on a margin of 8¢ cents per bushel plus freight to the nearest terminal market. In illustrating the application of this principle St. Louis was used as the terminal market and a freight rate was named which does not correspond with any place in Morgan county. This was done to avoid suggestion of a personal thrust at a buyer at any particular shipping point. After talking with the manager of the Farmers' Elevator at Woodson he has expressed a perfect willingness to have that station used as an illustration in further showing the application of this rule.

The freight from Woodson to St. Louis on wheat is 9¢ per hundred or 5.4¢ per bushel. Applying the principle at Woodson the price for the various grades should be 12.4¢ less than at the terminal market at St. Louis. The prices at St. Louis are $2.24 and $2.21 respectively for Nos. 1 and 2 wheat. According to the rule then the price at Woodson should be $2.106 for No. 1 and $2.076 for No. 2 wheat. However, the Woodson Elevator has found it an advantage to ship to Chicago. The freight rate to Chicago is $11.50 or 6.9¢ per bushel. The based prices at Chicago are $2.26 and $2.23 respectively. If 14.9¢ is deducted from these prices we shall have 2.111 and 2.081 as the prices that might prevail at that

This is the rear end of the Hummer, the manure spreader that will assure any farmer of the largest possible returns for 1919.

Note carefully the strong construction, the heavy steel wings mounted on a high carbon steel shaft, practically indestructible, with wide, smooth bearings and chain drive. The wings are adjusted to pulverize and spread a perfect, even, wide swath, extending beyond the rear wheels.

The all steel beater is of heavy angle iron with staggered teeth, riveted to bar which is bolted to heavy malleable spiders or hubs which are mounted on high carbon square steel shaft.

The front end trucks are built to stand extraordinary hard usage under all conditions. It has a heavy front axle, 1½ inch cold rolled steel. Fifth wheel extra heavy of a special type with hard oiler. Front wheels set narrow which permits an easy, free movement in turning, and also prevents lashing or whipping of tongue on rough ground. The track of both wheels so arranged that you can scatter over corn rows when top-dressing small corn, without injury to growing corn.

If you are going to need a spreader do not overlook this great opportunity. If you are without a spreader you owe it to yourself to buy one now, and as a money maker you cannot equal this.

Top dressing any growing crop makes big money.

OBITUARY

Private Arthur H. Kitchen son of Joseph and Mary Kitchen was born near Scotville, Ill., July 17, 1890 and departed this life Nov. 12, at 7:30 a. m. being 28 years 3 months and 25 days old.

Private Kitchen had been a strong virile young man, not knowing the weight of sickness until the illness which caused his death.

On Sept. 6 Arthur answered the call of his country and entered Camp Custer, Battle Creek, Mich. for training. Here he contracted influenza which was followed by other complications and after an illness of six weeks' duration death ensued.

On the 16th of last February he was united in marriage to Miss Virginia E. Andell of Winchester, and during his long illness his faithful wife remained by his side, ministering to his need; at one time when death seemed near, remaining by his side for a period of four days and nights without food or rest.

There were present at the time of his death, his wife, his sister, Mrs. Myrtle Hicks and his brother, William Kitchen. The long illness, the brave patient suffering with for Arthur many friends and when death claimed him the entire ward as well as his nurse and doctors, were much affected over the loss. His sergeant, Jack Wilson, accompanied the body the entire distance home.

The near relatives surviving Arthur are: his wife, Virginia E. Kitchen, his father and mother, Joseph and Mary Kitchen, four sisters, Mrs. Myrtle Hicks, Mrs. Otis Vanbiber, Mrs. Sallie Newby, and Mrs. Lee Crouse. The living brothers are Will, Walter and Anderson. Arthur was preceded in death by one infant brother.

In addition to the relative mentioned, he leaves to mourn their loss many others as well as a host of friends who will greatly miss the optimistic and genial fellowship of this loyal friend.

The bearers were John Andell, Clarence Blackburn, W. H. Stephenson, Lee and Clyde Sturdy and Lee Stainforth.

The flower girls were Miss Mildred Andell, Mrs. John Andell, Miss Daisy Andell, Mrs. George Drew, Miss Louise Keemer and Mrs. W. H. Coultas.

Escape Pneumonia

The vast number of fatal pneumonia cases should warn every one to keep free from colds, for colds are the starting point for this dreadfully fatal malady.

When the bowels are inactive food-waste lies in the system and ferments, creating a flood of poisons which tax the blood, lungs, kidneys and skin pores beyond their ability to throw off. Then a cold may quickly fasten upon you. Influenza follows colds and then pneumonia.

Keep your system clean. Keep your bowels active. That means you will have full, rich, red blood abounding in power to throw off cold and to protect you against the terrible danger of pneumonia.

This is the safe thing to do: Get a bottle of SALINOS from your druggist. It is a laxative and will completely empty the entire digestive tract, including the lower bowels, where most poisons are formed. Salinos is really pleasant to take, pleasant in taste, pleasant in action.

Salinos is inexpensive to use, a bottle for a Quarter (larger sizes, Fifty cents and a Dollar). Get it today. Be safe! Use it tomorrow morning.

Famous Old Recipe for Cough Syrup

Easily and Cheaply Made at Home, But It Beats Them All for Quick Results.

Thousands of housewives have found that they can save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, by using this well known old recipe for making cough syrup at home. It is simple and cheap to make, but it really has no equal for prompt results. It takes right hold of a cough and gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less.

Get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist, pour it into a pint bottle, and add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good. Keeps perfectly, and lasts a family a long time.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the membranes, and gradually but surely relieves the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough—disappears entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, whooping cough or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its healing effect on the membranes.

Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money

VICTORY GIRL REPORT FOR COUNTY

Although from a dollar and cents standpoint the Victory Girl part in the United War Work campaign has not been as successful as we had hoped that it might be, it has been most successful in its primary object of arousing and demonstrating the active spirit of service among the girls of the county. The fact that an unusual combination of conditions has made it impossible for the Jacksonville precinct to meet its quota does not imply any lack of faithful work on the part of its chairman and her lieutenants. The precincts outside of Jacksonville deserve a very special degree of commendation since, notwithstanding bad weather, bad roads and a great deal of sickness they have secured practically 150 per cent of their quota or $1,310.25 on a quota of $925. Too much credit cannot be given to the county precinct chairman for this splendid report.

A report of the precincts with their quotas and the amount of the pledges reported Tuesday evening follows. Since a number of precincts are still working, it is not altogether impossible for the county to go over the top, even yet.

WANTON VANDALISM
Some miscreants are damaging Strawn's Grove school house a few miles southwest of the city. It is a shame indeed. The vandals have shot holes in the heating ventilator, the tower and other parts of the building. The directors are much put out about it and give fair notice that any guilty ones will be severely punished if detected. It does seem strange that people can find any satisfaction in such deeds.

SISTER DIES SUDDENLY

ZAHN'S GARAGE

ADDITION

As already noted, the dwelling house on East Morgan street owned by Howard Zahn and for years occupied by Charles Seymour, is now being removed. It was purchased by George Ferreira and will be taken to a lot on East Morgan street near Clay avenue. James Hall has a force of men moving the building and a great deal of difficulty is being experienced on account of the short turn necessary. The building is being moved, as already indicated, so that Mr. Zahn can make a substantial addition to his already spacious garage.

The plans were drawn for the new building by J. K. C. Person. A part of the building on the west side of the lot will be torn down and the new structure will extend from the west line to the new wall constructed a year ago just east of the residence property. The addition is to be of steel, brick and concrete, and when completed Mr. Zahn will have 32,000 square feet of floor space, one of the largest garages in the state outside of Chicago.

YOUR BACK ORDERS

A long suffering merchant who had been a week getting goods from St. Louis and two weeks getting them from Chicago received the following from the wholesale house:

"Keep your temper, gentle Sir, Writes the Manufacturer, The your goods are over-due, For a month, or maybe two, We can't help it, please don't swear."

Labor's scarce and very rare; Can't get metals, can't get dyes; These are facts; we tell no lies.

Harry's drafted, so is Bill, All our works is now up hill, So your orders, we're afraid, May be still a bit delayed.

Still you'll get them, don't get vexed.

Maybe this month, maybe next, Keep on hoping, don't say die.

You will get them bye and bye."

BAN LIFTED AT LITCHFIELD

THOMAS A. FLYNN ANSWERS FINAL TAPS

Jacksonville Boy Makes Supreme Sacrifice—Son of Mr. and Mrs. John Flynn, 323 South Clay Avenue—Death Resulted From Pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. John Flynn of 323 South Clay avenue received the sad intelligence Wednesday from the war department in Washington that their son, Thomas A. Flynn had made the supreme sacrifice in France. Death came from bronchial pneumonia on October 30.

Thomas A. Flynn was 26 years of age and most of his life was spent in this city. He was a member of Company B when it was first organized. Later he became a member of Company C of Springfield and was on the Mexican border during the trouble there prior to the declaration of war on Germany.

He went into training at Camp Logan with Company C, and was later transferred in the reorganization of the army to Company K, 129th Infantry 33 Division. He sailed for France on May 17. After peace had been declared his family were looking forward to the day of his safe return and naturally news of his death came as a great shock.

Besides his parents he is survived by three brothers, Edward and James at home, and John at Bradway, Polioche, Florida, where he is taking war work and two sisters, Helen and Catherine also residing at home.

YOUR VICTROLA is here.
J. P. Brown Music House.

INFLUENZA STATUS BETTER YESTERDAY

The best report which has come from the health warden's office for several weeks was that of Wednesday, when but nine new influenza cases were reported at the office. It is said that a number of physicians felt that the day had resulted in fewer cases developing because on account of rain people were staying more closely at home. At any rate, the day's record of nine was encouraging and it is not too much to hope with the adoption of careful methods of quarantine that the worst of the epidemic is past and that local affairs may soon resume normal relationships.

HE IS 72 YEARS OLD TODAY

This is the 72nd birthday of Uncle Jack Osborne of the C. C. Phelps Dry Goods Co., and the years are lightly on his shoulders. As the Journal has several times expressed its high regard for the gentleman an extended notice will not be made on this occasion but for the sentiments of the paper please see the files of a year ago. The same sentiments are now expressed and increased by the flight of time.

TO LIVE IN CITY.

Mrs. Ted Cox, who held a sale of personal property yesterday at her farm home northeast of Jacksonville, will move to the city early in December. She will reside at 360 West College avenue.

FUNERAL NOTICE

The funeral of the late Charles Price will be held at the residence, 104 East State street, at 10 o'clock Friday morning.

MORE MONEY IN U. W. W. CAMPAIGN

After the final day of the average campaign, work stops suddenly. This was not true in the United War Work campaign and last night Dr. Harker, county chairman received the pleasing news that Murrayville had during the day added more than $200 to its quota and the statement was made by the workers that the quota will be fully subscribed before the end of the week. Still better news came from Waverly, where $1,011.16 was added to the subscriptions since the last report. This makes the Waverly subscription list $3,471.16, which puts the precinct in the over the top class, as the quota was $3,835. These additions to the fund change the county total to $72,560, which is a long way toward the quota of $81,000.

DISTRICT U. W. W. CAMPAIGN

J. S. Findley, district secretary War Work campaign, last night sent in a report to the state headquarters which included the following figures:
Cass county $34,900 which is about 5 per cent over the quota.
Morgan county $72,560, approximately 40 per cent over the quota.
Pike county, $52,000, which is a trifle more than 150 per cent.
Cott county, $14,500, against a quota of $16,650.
The record for the Victory Boys was:
Cass county—$500.
Pike county—$600.
Morgan county—$1,640.
Scott county—$500.
This is a total of $3,240 as against the maximum quota of $5,030.

NO MORE NUTS OR PEACH SEEDS WANTED

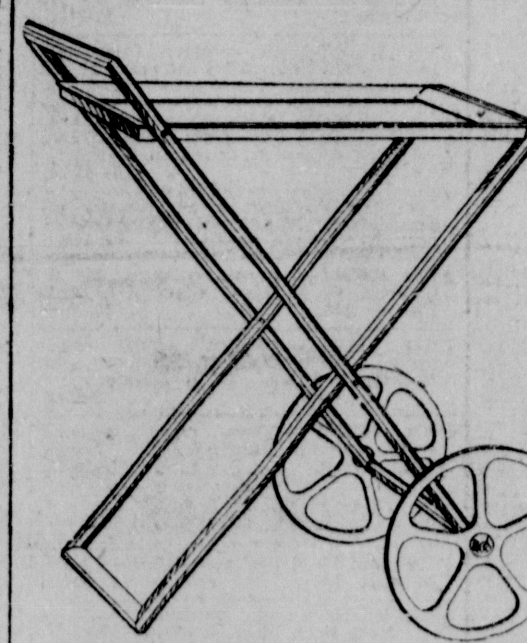

The C. C. Phelps Dry Goods Co. are informed that no more nuts and peach seeds are wanted by the government though if any one has a car load they may be shipped but otherwise used for fuel if worth anything in that way. The C. C. Phelps Dry Goods Co. shipped something like fifty or sixty bushels of seeds and patriotically attended to the work without charge. It is said the German people have thus been collecting seeds and nuts for this purpose for twenty years; another evidence of the world conquest plans of that country.

ERROR IN SUBSCRIPTION

In the report of subscriptions to the United War Work fund the Journal gave that of E. R. Nicholson as $2 whereas it should have been $20.
